Statement of Faith and Practice: The members of these congregations confess the One God, who is from everlasting the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. They are covenanted to walk together in love, as becomes a body of disciples of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, our Lord and Savior. Christ is acknowledged as the only and sovereign head of this church. Members are consecrated to his service, trusting in the sustaining power of the Holy Spirit working in and through them. They seek to be faithful in worship, work, and witness in order to build up his church. They share the gospel with all people, and strive to grow in grace and in the knowledge of God.

The Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the only infallible rule for faith and practice, by which all preaching, teaching and actions are guided.

We accept the Apostles' Creed and the Nicene Creed as true expressions of our Christian faith.

The two sacraments of the Church are Holy Baptism and Holy Communion. Baptisms in this Church are administered to infants, or to adult believers, without prejudice as to the validity of the sacrament. Only the appointed clergy of the National Evangelical Church shall administer the sacraments in all member congregations. If visiting ordained clergymen are present, they may be invited to share in these services.

I declare that the information provided in this form is correct and I fully agree with the "Faith and Mission Statements" of NEC and I will abide by the rules and regulations of the NEC and English Language Congregation to maintain the discipline in the Church.
